SATURDAY AUGUST 3RD– CHRISTOPHER DAVIS SHANNON [Jazz Vocal + Guitar]

Christopher Davis-Shannon's music is the essence of honest simplicity. Steeped strongly in the piedmont and delta fingerstyle blues traditions, his performances bring you back to a time of juke joints and smoky blues clubs of the early 20th century south. A modern vagabond he has toured the country as a performer the past 3 years, performing from Las Vegas to New Orleans and throughout the South. Davis-Shannon performs a mix of blues and jazz standards, traditional spirituals and his own originals which are steeped in the age old styles he holds close to his heart. His intricate guitar work and plaintive vocals are infused with soulfulness which cannot be faked, and a respect for his predecessors which is rarely equaled. Christopher Davis-Shannon's act has already caught the attention of several beloved music promoters in the greater Philadelphia area, and shows no signs of slowing anytime soon.

Since the 2012 release of his self-released debut, Sing, Brown's meteoric rise from playing small clubs in Northeastern Pennsylvania to playing live on the iconic NPR roots music show Mountain Stage (in West Virginia) is nothing short of phenomenal.
